

Guide to Cleaning and Disinfecting Bluebird Mobile Computers

Bluebird's products are designed to withstand repeated disinfection and cleaning.

In order to protect field employees using business devices from bacteria and viruses, Bluebird guides you through cleaning and disinfection of Bluebird products and a list of the approved cleaning agents by Bluebird.

Cleaning Materials Required

- Alcohol wipes
- Lens tissue
- Cotton-tipped applicator
- Isopropyl alcohol
- Can of compressed air with a tube

Device Cleaning Instructions

Do not apply liquid directly to the device. Dampen a soft cloth or use pre-moistened wipes. Do not wrap the device in the cloth or wipe, instead gently wipe the unit. Be careful not to let liquid pool around the display window or other places. Before use, allow the unit to air dry.

NOTE :

For thorough cleaning, it is recommended to remove all accessory attachments first, such as hand straps or cradle cups, from the mobile device to clean them separately.

Cleaning and Disinfecting

1. Turn off the device.
2. Soak a sterile dry cloth with an approved cleaning agent.
3. Wipe the device using pre-moistened cloth.
 - Use a cotton-tipped applicator to clean a narrow area and remove any dirt particles on the device.
 - Use a lens tissue to clean the window for optical parts such as barcode window and camera window.
 - Use a pre-moistened cloth or cotton-tipped applicator with isopropyl alcohol to clean electrical connected parts and connector on cradle.

4. Dry completely the device with a sterile dry cloth. And confirm complete dryness of electrical contacts before using the device.

NOTE :

1. Do not spray any cleaning agent directly onto the device.
2. Cleaning agents that contain bleach causing corrosion of metal are not allowed to clean electrical connectors. In case bleach is applied to the electrical terminal, remove it completely using water or isopropyl alcohol.
3. Dry hands before cleaning and disinfecting.
4. Using unapproved cleaning agents by Bluebird can cause product damage and Bluebird does not take any responsibilities for the damage.
